

This is the season when the members of the various social and literary clubs are busy arranging for the continuance of active work during the summer months. People are weary of card playing, and both writing and listening to papers, and look for out of door amusement. Bicycling seems to be the most popular and alluring form of recreation just now, but the spring rains have so far prevented the devotees from engaging in the pastime to any great extent.

This is the season of the year, too, when considerable time is given by ladies to the balancing of social accounts, especially in the matter of calls, so that they may start on their summer trips leaving clear lists behind and taking clear consciences along.

Miss Blanche Kimball informally entertained a few friends Thursday at cards in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Col Woodruff of Prescott, Ariz.

Mr. Woodruff returns home this week, while Mrs. Woodruff will spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Julia Kimball.

The marriage of Miss Mary Roundy and Mr. Charles Caine will take place early in June.

Mrs. Tamplin W. London of Portland, Ore., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps Holman, at the Manitou.

Mrs. James H. Bacon has returned from a protracted visit in the east.

Miss Lawrence informally entertained Thursday in honor of Miss Hamilton of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Geddes left Friday for New York City, going via Galveston and Ocean route. They will attend the commencement exercises of St. Mary's school in New York City, where Miss Katherine graduates, and after a trip to Newport and Niagara Falls will return home about the latter part of June.

Rev. T. B. Forbush of Chicago came in yesterday from Denver with Rev. A. L. Hudson. Mr. Forbush will preach this morning at Unity hall.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Lyons entertained some fifty guests Monday evening. Cards was the form of entertainment, and the jolly game of German whist was played. Dainty refreshments were served on tables tastefully decorated with apple blossoms. Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Hogg, Mr. Carpenter and Mr. Marland were the prize winners.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Eismann announce the engagement of their daughter Rena to Mr. Milton Cohen of New Orleans. At home Sunday, May 17, at 715 East Second South street.

Mrs. Lyons delightfully entertained at a Kensington tea Thursday afternoon, a large number of her lady friends.

The engagement of Miss Little Levitt to Mr. E. Davis is announced.

Mrs. A. W. Barrows entertained on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. G. P. Holman will entertain at the Manitou Wednesday in honor of Mrs. T. W. London.

Mrs. Gorham entertained Thursday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated, dainty refreshments were served and an enjoyable afternoon was passed by the ladies present.

Mrs. L. S. Dickinson left Saturday for a month's visit in Denver.

Mrs. L. B. Gorham entertained at a Kensington tea Thursday in compliment to Mrs. M. L. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Miller entertained Friday evening at cards. The floral decorations added much to the pleasantness of the evening and the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Donnellan, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Ship, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knox, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Archer, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Egan, Mr. and Mrs. A. Street, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Mahon, Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley.

Mrs. Isaac Trumbo returned from New York during the week.

Mr. Joseph Siegel returned from Leipzig university Monday and was welcomed home by a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Daggett have returned home, after spending the winter in southern California.

The ladies of Salt Lake city owe much to the progressive women of the Salt Lake Woman's club and latest of all they are to be indebted to them for the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Mabel Jensen Vatter deliver her celebrated lecture on "Artistic Dress and the Vulgarisms we See in Society." Mrs. Vatter will lecture for the benefit of the club next Saturday, May 22, in Unity hall, at 2:30 p. m. In this day and age the woman who can teach her sex how to grow mentally and spiritually and yet can not lose in physical beauty, is the woman who deserves the highest recognition and most earnest support.

The lecture is for ladies only. Mrs. Vatter will show the following costumes designed by the leading tailors of London, New York and Chicago. Two house dresses, two street costumes, a festive dress, full evening dress, a rainy day costume and the latest improved underwear.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Solomon were the victims of a pleasant surprise party Tuesday evening. The event was planned by members of the Solomon family.

Lee Taylor, Paul Ingerbretsen and George Goddard are arranging to select social party for next Friday night in the Third Ward Institute, which promises to be one of the leading social events of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis of Seventeenth street entertained a number of young people on Friday afternoon in honor of their daughter's anniversary of their daughter Hazel.

The Young Ladies' association of the Third ward on Wednesday evening gave a very successful social party in the educational institute. It was a kind of half year affair, the floor managers being all young ladies. However, they showed their generosity by allowing the gentlemen to choose partners the latter part of the evening. Young people were present from each of the five wards, about fifty couples in all, and a right pleasant time was had of it from 8 o'clock until morning.

Tuesday night the residence of Hon. D. H. Peery will be thrown open to the public, and the ladies of the Kindergarten association will entertain, the proceeds going to aid the tree kindergarten movement and swell the fund. The affair will be one of the memorable social events of the season.
